

March 11, 2010

Mary Jo Wills
Ambassador

On the happy occasion of Mauritian Independence Day, I would like to personally congratulate all the people of Mauritius. You are rightly proud of what you have achieved in the 42 short years since March 12, 1968.

It is a privilege and honor to serve in a country that has instituted and maintained democratic traditions and a market economy, and that has drawn its strength from its ethnic and religious diversity—and flourishes today as a result.

Congratulations!

Viv lil Moris!